Eligibility

- Who is eligible to apply?

Individual artists, culture bearers, nonprofit arts workers, and teaching artists who reside full-time in Alameda or Contra Costa county are eligible to apply. Additionally, applicants cannot have a conflict of interest (family or financial relationships) with the boards, staff, and directors of CCI and funders of the Relief Fund. Only one request will be considered per applicant.

Regarding residence, the online application requires ONE proof of current residency. Proof is demonstrated by uploading a legible photo of a current state driver’s license or ID; or most-recent utility bill, health insurance statement, bank statement, or other similar type of document. The name and address must match that used in the application form. Please note: We only need to see the NAME and ADDRESS on your document. You do not need to upload the entire document. Please cover up sensitive information like your Social Security and account numbers.

- Who qualifies as an artist, culture bearer, nonprofit arts worker, or teaching artist?

Applicants must have a public-facing role in the arts and culture sector, and make their primary income from their role(s) in the field. Moreover, the Fund supports artists and arts workers from a wide range of cultural traditions and artistic practices such as fine artists, including (but not limited to) literary, visual, and performing artists; DJs and musicians; teaching artists; culture bearers; artist members of collective-based or cooperative creative social enterprises; specialized arts workers (e.g., lighting or sound designers, fabricators); nonprofit arts administrators; folk and traditional artists; and makers.

Depending on the role with which you identify, you will need to provide evidence that your work is public-facing. We will not be assessing artist merit, professional reputation, or career stage.

For artists, we ask for a personal website or a website hosted by another entity that features or shares your artistic work. You may also share your artistic practice via a publicly accessible link to your Instagram or Facebook account, or a media platform like Soundcloud, Vimeo, or YouTube. Artists without an online presence can upload a single attachment that demonstrates their artistic practice, such as a photo, news article, or sample marketing materials (File types accepted: .pdf, .jpeg, .png, .doc, .docx).

For culture bearers, nonprofit arts workers, or teaching artists, we ask for the name of your primary employer or cultural business; occupation or title; and a URL for your employer/business or a URL for a site that verifies your arts-related work. Applicants without a URL can upload a single attachment that demonstrates their arts-related work, such as a photo, news article, or sample marketing materials (File types accepted: .pdf, .jpeg, .png, .doc, .docx).

Language

- Is the application available in other languages besides English?

We are only able to accept applications in English, however non-English speakers are encouraged to apply. The application is brief and simple, and we encourage you to find a friend, neighbor, or family member who can help you to help you complete it.

Proof of Residency

- What types of documents can I provide for my proof of residency?

You may submit any document from a third party that clearly shows your NAME and CURRENT ADDRESS. We will accept the following documents as proof of residency [File types accepted: .pdf, .jpeg, .png, .doc, .docx] :

- Driver's license or government-issued ID card
- Utility bill (electricity, water, gas, internet service or phone bill)
- Health insurance statement or medical bill
- Bank or credit card statement
- Statement of government benefits (this could include SSI, SSDI, SNAP, etc)

Please cover up sensitive information like your Social Security and account numbers.

Funding

- How much funding can I request?

Individuals can request up to $2,000.

Applicants will be asked to describe their financial needs in detail, and are requested to apply only if facing an immediate financial emergency. This is meant to reserve as much of the Fund as possible for those facing significant financial threats. Please note the amount awarded may be less than the amount requested in order for the Fund to benefit as many individuals as possible.

- If I'm awarded a grant, how can I use it?

Your grant can be used in any way that helps alleviate financial hardship due to COVID-19. The only restriction is that funds cannot be used towards lobbying.

Notification & Payment Process

- When will I be notified about the status of my application?

All applicants will be notified regarding the status of their application on Tuesday, December 14, by 5 p.m. PT.

- Is this grant taxable?

CCI acts in good faith that this support may not be taxable as it is intended to ameliorate personal financial hardship brought on by COVID-19, a "qualified disaster" under 26 US Code Section 139. We are, however, not able to offer legal or tax advice, so please seek appropriate expertise if you have any questions.

- If I am awarded a grant, when will I receive my payment?

All applicants will be notified about their status on December 14, by 5 p.m. PT. Applicants who are awarded funding will receive a grant agreement from CCI which they will need to review and electronically sign (grant agreements will be sent by SignRequest) before payment processing can commence.

After signing and agreeing to the grant terms, grantees will receive an invitation from Tipalti.com, CCI's direct payment processing platform that uses bank-level security, firewalls, and encryption, in one - three business days. After an account is created and bank information entered, payment will be made, and may take three - five business days. Checks are available in lieu of direct deposit, if preferred, but may take additional time to receive.

WE STRONGLY ENCOURAGE ALL GRANTEES TO REVIEW AND SIGN THEIR AGREEMENTS

AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. Grantees who sign and return their grant agreements after December 21 at 5 p.m. will have their payment processed on or after January 3, 2022.

We cannot guarantee that the tax benefits under 26 US Code Section 139 will be in effect after December 21. For this reason, we strongly encourage signing the grant agreement and activating your Tipalti payment processing account as soon as possible in order to receive payment before the end of the 2021 year.

Note: CCI does not have any control of when payments will be received. Once grantees successfully open an account with Tipalti or CCI submits a check request, we will not be able to track payment processing by grantees' financial institutions or delivery by USPS mail. What we can share is that in the thousands of transactions CCI has processed, three to five business days is customary.

- Will I need to complete a report if awarded funding?

The grant period officially concludes on March 31, 2022. In lieu of a final report, grantees will receive a web-based survey from CCI at the conclusion of the grant period. The survey will ask grantees to share (a) how grant funds were used, (b) how the grant was/was not helpful, (c) if and how COVID-19 health or financial conditions led to any significant life changes, and (d) an update on financial conditions. This information is helpful for describing the grant's usefulness, for understanding the state of the arts field, to inform how funders can be helpful, and for potential use in public-facing reports. Whatever is shared publicly will be in aggregate (i.e., without personal attribution to individual grantees) and anonymously.

- Will you announce the names of grantees?

We consider financial need to be sensitive and personal information, and therefore, we won't release the names of grantees, but we will share data about how many applications we received and the number of applications that were funded.
