Nonprofit Arts Organization staff

2. If applying as staff from an organization, how many staff members can apply and how often?

For staff members of nonprofit organizations, Quick Grants are awarded through the organization. Organizations may submit applications for up to two staff members per fiscal year. Only one staff member can apply per application.

3. When are applications due? When will I find out if I have been awarded a Quick Grant?

Applications are processed on a monthly cycle. Applications are due on the 15th of every month with a one-month turn around. For example, if you submit an application by the September 15th deadline, you will receive notification of your award status by October 15th.

4. What do you mean by 'reimbursement funds'? When can the activities for which I am applying begin?

Quick Grant payments are processed to the applicant upon the completion of the proposed activity. The start date for your proposed activity or activities must occur at least 30 days after the application deadline. For example, for an application received by September 15th the requested activity must take place after October 15th. The applicant is therefore awarded reimbursement funding, once they have demonstrated completion of the approved activity.

5. What type of activities does the Quick Grant Program Fund?

Quick Grants are for professional development or technical assistance activities such as workshops, conferences, seminars, or consultations that demonstrate a direct impact on the applicant's administrative capacity. Examples might include: attending a national conference, hiring a career coach or consultant, or taking a nonprofit management or financial workshop.

6. What types of activities or costs are NOT eligible?

We are open to considering a wide range of professional development activities as long as a strong case is made for how the activity will strategically build administrative capacity, hone business skills and/or strengthen the economic sustainability of an organization or arts practice. In addition it is important that the activity budget is well documented, including other committed sources of income if the total activity cost exceeds the grant maximum.

Ineligible activities are those focused on artistic development or skill building or developing a craft. Examples of ineligible activities may include: craft technique classes, art theory/ history courses, presenting projects in a gallery or at a festival, residencies, creating or completing an existing art project, etc. In addition, we cannot fund activities that begin less than 30 days after the application deadline.

Ineligible expenses are compensation for lost wages, wages for contract/temporary employees, transportation for activities taking place within a 60-mile radius of your home/work, reimbursement for activities you have participated in prior to applying; and/or funding to offset costs associated with college tuition or for college credit activities.

7. Can I still submit an application for an upcoming deadline if some of my information is incomplete or as of yet, unconfirmed?

We cannot review incomplete applications or applications missing support materials. However, we review applications monthly. If you are unable to submit your complete application for the current deadline, we encourage you to reapply next month!

8. How often can I apply? How often can I receive funding?

Individual artist applicants may only receive one reimbursement award per fiscal year. Organizations applying on behalf of staff members may receive up to two Quick Grants per fiscal year. The fiscal year is July 1st through June 30th. For this reason we encourage you to plan and apply for your professional development activity well in advance. In order to meet the demand for funds and to support the maximum number of applicants, partial funding may also be awarded.

9. Can I apply for Quick Grant funding for multiple activities?

We encourage applicants to think strategically about their professional development needs. For that reason, applicants are encouraged to apply for multiple activities in their application since applicants are only able to receive one grant award per fiscal year.

10. How do I submit an application online?

Applications MUST be submitted online through our website. You must register at our site prior to applying. These materials are uploaded as attachments through the online application form. The Letter of Commitment should confirm that the proposed consultant is prepared to engage in the services and timeline proposed in your Quick Grant application, pending approval of funding.

If you are applying as an individual artist, your resume should represent your artistic background outlining any artistic training and education, exhibitions/performances/publications, awards and
